

GEOLOGY OF THE OLDBURY AREA

- |                      |                                      |                   |      |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------|-------------------|------|
| Quaternary    | Alluvium                             | Boundaries | 1894 |
|                      | Glaciofluvial sand & gravel          |                   | 1928 |
| Triassic      | Wildmoor formation                   |                   |      |
|                      | Kidderminster formation              |                   |      |
| Permian       | Clent formation                      |                   |      |
| Carboniferous | Halesowen formation                  |                   |      |
|                      | Enville formationAs conglomerate |                   |      |
|                      | Keele formation                      |                   |      |
|                      | Coal measures / Etruria marl         |                   |      |
|                      | Dolerite intrusion                   |                   |      |
|                      | Eastern Boundary Fault               | Other faults      |      |